HARRY C. MCCARTHA

May 27, 1998

Dear Wesley:

Just a quick note to tell you how much all of us here appreciate the way you responded to our call for help. Your department can be proud of you and your staff. You quickly put our fears to rest after we got over the shock of listening to the attorneys.

I hope they will now ply their venom some place else and that people that seek the truth will call your office and Harland Keeton's in Orlando.

I am going to meet with other Christiana neighborhoods to tell them that there are people to call for good information.

It seems a shame that people can be so motivated by money with no worry how many innocent people can be affected.

Please express my sincere thanks to your great associates Tom McNally, Bob Ammons and your helper "Lisa".

Thanks so much from me personally.

Sincerely
Harry

Later I will write your superiors.
